EXTERIOR – COUNTRY HOTEL DRIVEWAY, NIGHT

A car pulls up the gravel drive and parks outside the hotel. A silhouetted couple get out of the car – they can't wait to get inside.

INTERIOR – HOTEL RECEPTION, NIGHT

The 30 something couple, dressed in evening wear, share saucy looks with each other as the receptionist checks them into the hotel. The receptionist has seen this kind of thing before but even she is mildly taken aback.

RECEPTIONIST:

Breakfast is between 7 and 9. (handing over the room key) Enjoy your stay.

MAN:

Oh, we will.

The woman giggles as they head towards the lifts.

INTERIOR – HOTEL CORRIDOR

Smiling provocatively, the woman holds her stiletto shoes in her hands as she leans against the corridor wall. The man opens the hotel room door and lets her pass through before him.

INTERIOR – HOTEL BEDROOM

The couple enter the room and stare at the massive luxurious bed which dominates the room. Once again they share a cheeky smile.

Suddenly, they lunge at each other and start ripping off each other's clothes until finally they are just stood in their underwear. Breathing heavily they stare at each other for a moment – the air heavy with suspense. The man glances at the bed.

MAN:

Shall we?

The woman's eyes flicker with delight. She eagerly nods. The man picks her up and places her on the bed. He climbs onto the bed beside her and strokes her face.

MAN:

(Passionately) I've waited so long for this.

The woman smiles seductively. The man gently lowers himself towards her face – then, quickly kisses her on the forehead, turns away and grabs the alarm clock on the bedside table.

MAN:

(matter of fact) What time shall I set the alarm for?

WOMAN:

Seven. I told me mam, we'd pick the kids up at eight. (yawns) Oh. My. God. 10 hours uninterrupted sleep! This is the best present ever.

She snuggles down under the duvet excitedly. The man looks at the clock. It reads 9pm. He adjusts the alarm and puts it back on the bedside table. By the time he turns back to her, she's already zonked out in a rather unflattering pose – arms above her head, mouth open, snoring softly. He smiles and gently kisses her on the shoulder, before switching out the light and plonking himself back on his pillows with a satisfied sigh.

INTERIOR – KIDS PLAYROOM, NIGHT

A Gran and Granddad are playing with two very noisy, energetic, excited kids. Poor Granddad has one child on his back and is being ridden like a horse. Gran is sat in the middle of the room with a cardboard box over her head whilst the other child clips pegs onto her toes. In the midst of the chaos, Gran lifts the box off her head to reveal her face is covered with face paint. She looks at her husband.

GRANDMA:

(raising one eyebrow) Well, I hope Mummy and Daddy are enjoying their lovely, romantic evening, eh?

INTERIOR – HOTEL ROOM

The man and the woman are both zonked out fast asleep in very unflattering poses – arms & legs akimbo, mouths open and snoring loudly.
